

You must protect net neutrality

You must protect net neutrality.

It is essential to our democracy that we are free to obtain any information and free to express ourselves without the oversight of corporations or governmental agencies.

If you allow Big Money to control the internet they will use it to enslave us, and by us I mean you too.